William (Bill) H. Dove is a 1956 graduate of North Carolina State University. He is currently the owner of Creative Architecture in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. Previously, he was a partner in the firm of Dove, Knight & Whitehurst, P.A., Architects, the architectural firm of record for both Benson Chapel and the Seby B. Jones Performing Arts Center. Dove’s son, William H. Dove, II, is a 1982 graduate of Louisburg College. Dove is married, resides in Rocky Mount, and is a member of Englewood United Methodist Church.