Ms. Peggy Winstead

Peggy Winstead is a retired teacher – she taught for 31 years in Nash Rocky Mount Schools, including 9th grade English at Southern Nash High School and Southern Nash Junior High. She is a graduate of Manteo High School in Manteo, NC. Peggy graduated from Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, NC with a BS in psychology, and from ECU in Greenville, NC with a BS degree in Middle Grades Education and also with a Master’s degree in Education. Additionally, Peggy completed her National Board Certification in Middle Grades Education.

Peggy is a member of Sandy Cross United Methodist Church. She is married to Thomas Winstead, and they have two children. Their daughter Brandy is a graduate of Louisburg College and Radford University. Brandy is now an educator at Southern Nash High School. Their son, John Thomas Winstead, is a deputy with Nash County Sheriff’s Office.

Thomas and Peggy gave a major gift for the building of the Softball Training Facility which bears their name.

Peggy and Thomas reside in Nashville, NC.